PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

M. P. PASCHALL
Commerce

Dear Seniors,

To many of you, your graduation will end your formal education; to others it will offer an opportunity to attend institutions of higher learning. None of you should feel that the education you have been given here holds all of the answers to the problems that will confront you in days to come. We, the faculty, do trust and hope that the associations that have been yours, the responsibility that we have helped you meet, and the basic tools of learning that you have acquired will help you to lead a normal, helpful, contributing life as members of the human family.

We want you to know that we have enjoyed the opportunity of working and associating with you. We extend to you our hearty congratulations and most sincere wishes for a happy life.

Your principal,
William B. Miller

Class History

We started on August 24, 1953 as "Green" Freshmen. There were 56 of us enrolled. We elected the following as class officers: Janice Arteberry, Secretary & Treasurer; Thomas Reeves, Representatives; Kenneth Coy, Vice President; Edd Walston, President. We chose Mrs. Myrtle Jones as our sponsor.

We were pleased to have one of our classmates, Daytha Jackson, elected cheerleader. Those representing us on the ball team were: Charles Peeler, Earl Phillips, Jerry Arteberry, Bobby Pritchett, Thomas Reeves, Melvin Smith, Jerry Roberts, and Clifton Edwards. Bobby Johnson and Edd Walston were the managers.

We entered our "Silly" Sophomore year with 43 enrolled. We elected the following officers: Jerry Arteberry, President; LaVanda Collins, Vice President; Janice Arteberry, Secretary & Treasurer; and Doris Stewart, Representative. We elected Mr. D.J. Miller as our sponsor.

The boys that represented us on the ball team were: Bobby Pritchett, Jerry Roberts, Clifton Edwards, Earl Phillips, Thomas Reeves, J.C. Collins, and Charles Roberts.

At the beginning of our "Jolly" Junior year there were 37 enrolled. We chose Mr. Milton Walston as our sponsor. We elected the following class officers: Jerry Roberts, President; Gertrude Bogard, Vice President; Glenda Elkins, Secretary; Janice Arteberry, Treasurer and Laura Jean Barnett, Representative.

We were happy to have J.W. McCarty join our class.

We were glad to have Daytha Jackson represent our class as cheerleader. Those representing us on the ball team were: J.W. McCarty, Jerry Roberts, Earl Phillips, Charles Peeler, J.C. Collins, and Clifton Edwards. We presented a play, "The Millionaire From Memphis."

Now we have reached our goal as "Dignified" Seniors with 31 enrolled. We elected the following as class officers: Jerry Arteberry, President; Charles Peeler, Vice President; Janice Arteberry, Secretary; Ila Mae Hopkins, Treasurer; and Glenda Elkins, Representative. We chose Mr. Bill Miller as our sponsor.

Those representing us on the ball team were: J.W. McCarty, Bobby Prichett, Charles Peeler, Thomas Reeves, and Clifton Edwards. We were glad to have one of our class, Ola Mae Burkeen, elected cheerleader.

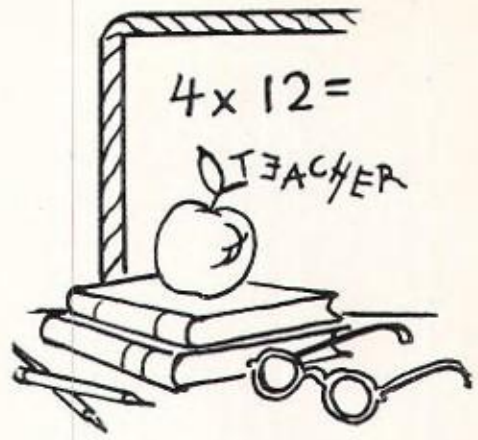
Class Prophecy

It is the year of 1968. Thomas Reeves, Bobby Pritchett, and I, Dan Hale, are walking down the street of New York City. We meet Ed. Walston and Bobby Johnson, and they tell us they are driving "Hot Rods" for a living. We go into a model's agency, and who should be modeling but Janice Arteberry, Doris Stewart and Ola Mae Burkeen. Janice tells that her brother Jerry is now married to Laura Jean Barnett and they have three sets of twins. Doris tells us that she and J.W. McCarty are engaged to be married.

We leave the agency and go into Edward's Art Store and find that the owner and artist of the store in none other than our old class mate, Clifton Edwards. Clifton tells us that Ila Mae Hopkins is married to Owen Morrison and have two little Elvises who play with a "Hound Dog." He also tells us that Jean Graham, Shirley Bennett and Delores Parrish are now running a dress shop.

We regretfully say good-bye to Clifton and board a plane tor Detroit. On the plane we find Janice Pace and LaVanda Collins are "stewardess," they tell us that Charles Peeler is the pilot of the plane. We learned from the girls that Earl Phillips and Ronald Hopkins are in Detroit. Earl is the owner of General Motors Corporation. Ronald Hopkins, who owns "Heavy's Fixit Shop" gives excellent repair work with the assistance of Glenda Elkins as his secretary.

When we arrive in Detroit we meet Donnie Newberry, a Texas Rancher, who tells us that Charles Roberts is an agriculture teacher in Waco, Texas. After we leave Donnie we go up town where we see a huge sign advertising Copeland and West "Steak House." We go inside and there is none other than June Copeland and Linda West the owners. Gertrude Bogard, Joy McKinney and Mozelle Miller are the waitresses. While eating breakfast we talk of old times then say good-bye for Hollywood, California where we are now being shown in the picture "Don't Be Cruel."



Class Will

To whom it may concern:

This is to certify that the senior class members of 1957 declare this to be our last sane act of the year and the following printed portion to be our last will and testament.

I, Clifton Edwards, will my ability to say poems to Red Overby.
I, Earl Phillips, will my ability to skip school and get caught to Ted Lovett.
I, Thomas Reeves, will my ability to peroxide hair while on school trip, to Junior Furgerson.
I, Charles Peeler, will my ability to write love letters and get caught to Derral Greenup.
I, J.W. McCarty, will my ability to come to school late to anybody who can get by with it.
I, Bobby Pritchett, will my small build to Raymond Cope, hoping someday he will look as good as I do.
I, Dan Hale, will my ability to never get a ticket for speeding or reckless driving to Hicks Wells.
I, Glenda Elkins, will my rough and rowdy ways to Myrna Hargis, hoping she will loose part of her bashfulness.
I, Gene Graham, will my meek and timid ways to Rita Hargis.
I, Deloris Parrish, will my short hair to Kay Puckett.
I, Linda West, will my long eyelashes to Jo Ann Coursey.
I, Janice Pace, will my height to Joetta Hermdon.
I, Ola Mae Burkeen, being of sound body and as same as the law permits, will my love for basketball to Eluyn Paschall.
I, Ila Mae Hopkins, will my ability to scream at all Elvis Presley records, to Helen Barnett hoping she will get as big a charge out of it as I do.
I, Laura Jean Barnett, will my ability to fuss with a certain senior boy to Betty Jo Dowdy.
I, Shirley Bennett, will my flirty ways to Margie Duncan.
I, Gertrude Bogard, will my walk to Janice Towery.
I, Ed Walston, being of sound mind and flat headed will my ability to take Biology with the junior girls to Johnny Ellis.
I, Jerry Arteberry, will my ability to dress neat to Glen Hale.
I, Charles Roberts, will my ability to make speeches in F.F.A. to Howard Bucy.
I, Lavanda Collins, will my natural curly hair to Robbie Whitney so she won't have to get a Toni.
I, Doris Stewart, will my stylish ways to Sue Turner.
I, June Copeland, will part of my weight to Francis Walston, knowing it will make us both look better.
I, Bobby Johnson, will my ability to go to school 12 years without learning anything, to Nicky Ahart.
I, Ronald Hopkins, will my ability to get out of study hall to Billy Joe Lovett.
I, Donnie Newberry, will my ability to ask silly questions in English to Edward Turner.
I, Owen Morrison, will my inventive mind to Jo Lane Grogan.
I, Mozell Miller, will my ability to write off in History to Brooks Starks.
I, Janice Arteberry, will my ability to not quite know Geometry to Judy Elkins.
I, Joy McKinney will my gloomy disposition to Nancy Kelly.

Class Poem

"US AND OUR TEACHERS"

Us and our teachers
    We don't get along,
They're always saying
    That we're in the wrong.

They give us lessons
    That take lots of witt,
They are the ones
    That we never get.

We're failing in History
    And English too,
"You'd better get those lessons
    Or YOU"LL BE THROUGH!"

We'll fail on our tests
    We'll fuss and we'll fight,
But it always ends up
    That we're never right.

Jean, Shirley and Ed.

IN ACTION

LUTRICIA

The 1956-57 Warrior Squad is looking forward to having a good season.

Although graduation claimed a heavy toll, the following boys are back from last year's squad: Thomas Reeves, Bobby Pritchett, Charles Peeler, J.W. McCarty, Earl Phillips, Clifton Edwards, and Ted Lovett.

These following boys are up from the Junior High team and are showing signs of developing into true Warriors. They are Thomas Lamb, Junior Furgerson, Howard Bucy, Tommy Lee, Leroy Lamb, Darrel Greenup, Jerry Overby, Donald Chapman, Ronnie Jackson, Joe Walker, and Marshall Gilliam.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The F.F.A. is the oldest organization in the school. It is made up of nine committees of which each boy is a member of one. The year's activities starts out with the officers attending the Leadership Training Center for a period of one week. Three boys from our chapter attend the State Convention week where the finals of all speaking and musical contests are held. At the first of school the committees meet and work out a program of activities for the year. A beef cattle show is held in November for all boys with beef projects to show and sell their animals. A hog show is held in March for boys to show and sell their hogs. District F.F.A. day is held each year with many contests for boys to enter. Winners in the district compete with other winners in the State finals at the State Convention.

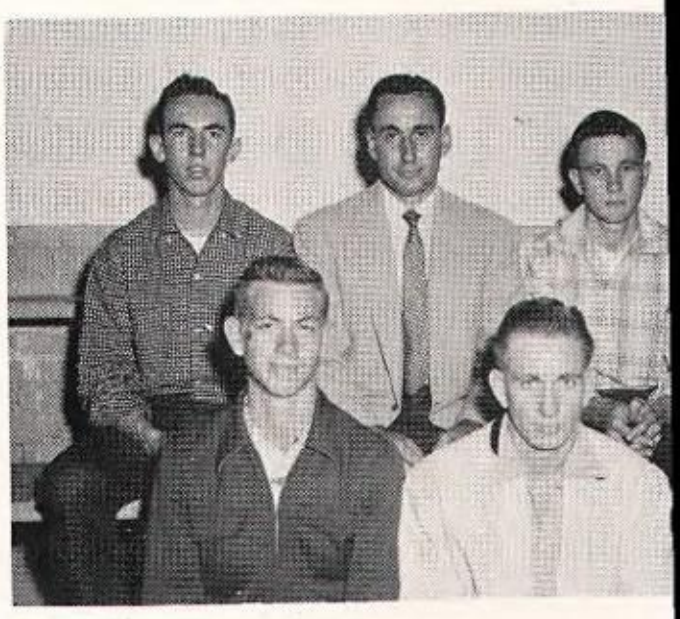
FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The F.H.A. is the largest organization in the school. It consists of a membership of seventy-six girls.

The F.H.A. was first organized in 1952 under the leadership of Mrs. E.B. Howton. Since 1953, Mrs. G.T. Lilly has been the advisor. Last year we held our first Mother-Daughter banquet, which was enjoyed by all; we are looking forward to another one this year.

Wanda Taylor, Helen Barnett and Peggy Cleaver were the girls receiving their Junior Degrees this year.

CONSERVATION CLUB



OFFICERS TOP: Bobby Johnson, W.B. Miller and Roy Williams. BOTTOM: Donald Cleaver and Donnie Newberry.

ALMO JR. CONSERVATION CLUB

The Almo Jr. Conservation Club was organized in the fall of 1952. The purpose of the club is to teach game conservation and good sportsmanship in the woods, in the fields, and on the streams. Our club holds a meeting once a month with our president, Donnie Newberry, presiding along with the assistance of Mr. J.B. McClain and Mr. J.O. Reeves, our conservation officers. Mr. W.B. Miller is our sponsor.

In our club meetings, we discuss the game and fish re-stocking program, deer hunts, goose and duck hunts, and other phases of outdoor life. This year through the supervision of Mr. J.B. McClain and Mr. W.B. Miller we went on a "coon" hunt in the Kentucky Woodlands game refuge. A total of four raccoon were caught, brought back home, and turned loose in Clark's River Bottom.

In the spring the conservation club stages a mo-skeet shoot. There are different age groups and the champion of each age group meets later on in the year with boys of other clubs for the area championship. Last Bobby Johnson and Jerry Byerly represented our conservation club.

In the summer, after school is out, the members of our conservation club, who want to, may go and spend a week at Camp Curie. Camp Curie is sponsored by our conservation clubs throughout the state and our Fish and Wildlife Division of the state of Kentucky.

We have twenty-seven members this year.
